

February 1, 2007

Commercial

Filmed a 30 second public service announcement for a local agency that helped people with epilepsy and GO24Advertising. The commercial aired in most of the Tri-state area. Here is the script: "Hi my name is Sara. I am 12 years old and I have epilepsy. It's important to those of us who live with this disorder to raise awareness so that people around us understand that epilepsy is what we have, it's not who we are! With your help we can break the stigma associated with epilepsy and help educate our communities. To learn more about epilepsy or to make a donation..."

