

It is hard to believe that December is upon us! I wish everyone a very happy holiday season.

November was a busy month for me. We left the Epilepsy Society of Southern New York. And have moved all of my fundraising efforts to The Epilepsy Foundation of Northeastern New York www.epilepsyfoundation.org/efneny. In my opinion this move will benefit those whose lives have been touched by Epilepsy better. All fund raising and donations that are raised by Sara's Walks will go directly to those individuals. With that said, now is an excellent time to thank everyone who has supported me and my fundraising efforts in the past and I hope that you will continue in the future.

Here are a few updates:

- It is official, Sara's 3rd Annual Walk will be held on Saturday, May 3rd, 2008. Sponsor forms are already available on my website on the "Home Page" and on the "What's Happening Now" page.
- The Book, per the author, Chris Passudetti, "It is Not Who I am – The Sara-Elizabeth Story" is coming along great. And September 2008 is still the target release date.
- I am still looking for other children and adults to share their "This IS who I am" at my website or via email that I can upload to the site. For more information on this please visit http://www.itsnotwhoiam.com/What\_s\_Happening\_Now.html. Especially with the holidays at our door steps, what nice things are you doing to better your community? I have received some really nice entries and have gotten many ideas on other things I can do to better my community from your entries.

Please visit www.Itsnotwhoiam.com for further updates.

Again, have a happy, healthy holiday season!

Sara-Elizabeth
